

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

Workplace: KRAKOW

CRIF Sp. z o.o. is the Polish company member of an innovative international group ("CRIF Group") specialized in credit information systems, business information and credit management solutions. CRIF Group provides IT solutions, decisioning systems, outsourcing, banking software and consulting services; our clients are mainly finance and insurance companies, utilities companies and enterprises in general and we support them in each step of their relations with their customers.

We are growing and looking for a candidate that will join our Legal Office and will take the position of Data Protection Officer at CRIF Sp. z o.o. and Krajowe Biuro Informacji Gospodarczej S.A.

REQUIREMENTS:

Experience:

- The ideal candidate has 3 years of experience in legal & compliance field (data protection experience will be considered a must), preferably in primary multinational companies and/or international law firms
- Proficiency in Polish and English is essential (both spoken and written)
- License to practice in law will be considered a plus

Soft skills:

- Ability to work under pressure and to interface and communicate well with the transaction team, including internal operational and management staff as well as outside counsels.
- Ability to provide top-level guidance to senior executives in an understandable way, often in a fast-moving and evasive environment.

- Ability to learn to earn the respect of senior management in order to be credible and effective in this complex and constantly-developing business
- Result and team oriented and able to work in an international, multi-cultural, fast-moving and complex business environment.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Supports the business functions in relation to data protection and ensure compliance with sector data protection regulations applicable in Poland.
- Support in the management of disputes extrajudicial and judicial (civil, criminal and administrative) connected with Data Protection.
- Support to handle all issues of Data Protection.
- Monitoring the development of the legislative framework specific to the regulations in Data Protection applicable to the activities of the Polish CRIF companies.

OUR OFFER:

- Stable employment in a fast growing international Fin-Tech environment.
- Flexible extensive social package.
- Language classes on different levels in the office (English and German).
- Trainings.
- Every day different fresh fruits in the office.
- Possibility to work from home.

If that sounds interesting – JOIN US! Contact us via email: career.pl@crif.com